AO 472 (Re	ev. 11/16) Order of Detention Pending Trial
	Significant family or other ties outside the United States  Lack of legal status in the United States  Subject to removal or deportation after serving any period of incarceration  Prior failure to appear in court as ordered  Prior attempt(s) to evade law enforcement  Use of alias(es) or false documents  Background information unknown or unverified  Prior violations of probation, parole, or supervised release
The Cour evidence combinat released of	REASONS OR FURTHER EXPLANATION:  t finds that the evidence and other information provided at the hearing established by clear and convincing that (1) the Defendant poses a serious risk of danger to the community or another person, and (2) no condition or ion of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of individuals or the community if the Defendant were on bond. The factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) weigh in favor of detention. The Court sets forth the or detention with more specificity in the attached supplemental Statement of Reasons.

Part IV - Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is remanded to the custody of the Attorney General or to the Attorney General's designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant must be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility must deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
